Bowling Matches Aid Polio Fund as Women Continue Canvassing

Chrm. Sexauer Schedules Match at Antioch Recreation Lanes

While women canvass the Antioch area for contributions to the polio fund, money making attractions are being arranged to augment it, Loren D. Sexauer, chairman announced.

Through the efforts of the Antioch Recreation, Chairman Sexauer has arranged two outstanding bowling matches to be held at the Recreation lanes Saturday evening, Jan. 20, and Sunday evening, Jan. 21.

The Pabst Blue Ribbon five of Waukegan will play a return engagement with Thor's Club Villa Saturday night. Both teams are members of the Waukegan classic league.

On Sunday a picked match team representing the Zion Bowling lanes and a team representing Antioch Recreation will compete. The Antioch team will comprise Truman Garretson, Ed Walters, Henry Pape, Ed Carney and Bill Keulman.

There will be no admission charge for either event and all contributions received from the spectators will go to the Antioch township polio fund.

This event affords a real opportunity for all bowling fans to assist in this worthy cause while being entertained by two of the outstanding matches of the bowling season.

The owners of the Antioch Recreation who are co-operating in the polio drive are Elroy Anderson, Emil Hallwas, Edward Carney and Louis Bauer, residents of this community.

Women soliciting money for the polio fund in the business section of Antioch were the first to complete their work and report a good response.

Because of the scattered area the drive is expected to continue the rest of the month.

Sheriff Walter Atkinson addressed the members of the grade school Parent-Teacher association Monday evening on the duties of the sheriff's office, emphasizing the work done on child delinquency and public safety.

He commended the Rescue squad of Antioch for its good work.

Hans von Holwede led the audience in singing and directed several students in some vocal selections. The students were Charles Larson, James Burke, William Barnstable, Richard Volk, and Roger Lang.

Richard Edmundson played the cornet solo "Whispering Hope."

The association decided to buy two more record players for the school.

Refreshments were served by mothers of the fourth and fifth grade pupils.

They moved from Lake Marie to Waukegan and more recently to 3113 Elm ave., Zion, where they spend their summers.

The children are Mrs. Arthur Coon, Francis Gray, James Gray, Mrs. Carl Christien, and William Gray, all of Waukegan, and Mrs. Garold Nighsinger, Zion.

They have 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Spence Miller, formerly of Antioch sparked the visiting team. Roy Weselius was high for Linders with 598 and Harry Linders was second high for that team with 592.

It Takes a Dime or Two Nickels at Telephone Pay Stations in Antioch Now

The Illinois Bell Telephone Co. began its own march of dimes this week when coin operated telephones were changed over from nickel operated ones.

Hereafter it will cost a dime or two nickels at Lake County pay stations for local calls.

J. M. Littler, company manager, said the change in rates affects only about 4 per cent of this area's 2,000 telephones.

Lack of an in-between coin prevented an increase over the nickel call years ago. The Illinois Commerce commission now considers the cost of the company sufficient to warrant the 100 per cent increase.

Legion Will Discuss Inquiry as to Rental Of Hall to Witnesses

Cmdr. Harold Christenson of the Antioch American Legion said that the post will no doubt discuss at its regular meeting tonight the inquiry from the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's church as to why the Legion hall was rented to Jehovah's Witnesses.

A committee of three comprising John Horan, Charles Cermak and E. J. Sletten was appointed Sunday by the society to ascertain why the Legion permitted the religious sect to use the hall in view of its stand on military service and saluting the flag.

"I think there has been some misunderstanding and we will take the matter up tonight," Christenson said.

Clarence Shultis, custodian of the hall said he had rented it to the Jehovah's Witnesses of Zion and Winthrop Harbor without giving the matter much thought.

"I knew the supreme court had decided in favor of Jehovah's Witnesses on the matter of freedom of speech, and I knew that the Legion stands for the four freedoms including freedom of speech and freedom of religion, so I saw no reason for turning them down," Shultis said.

He said that he was unaware that the American Legion nationally had opposed the religious group.

The Witnesses rented the home for four weekly meetings and quietly distributed their literature on the Antioch streets Saturday. Two of the four meetings already have been held.

The Bible Institute of Zion recently rented the home for an evangelistic meeting, and the Lutheran church holds regular meetings there.

Work Begun at Methodist Church On New Floor

On Monday evening men and young people of the Methodist church in Antioch began tearing up the basement floor in preparation for the laying of a new concrete floor in the church. Contractors will move in during the latter part of the week to pour cement. The project, costing more than a thousand dollars, will be paid from the general fund of the church. The present wooden floor was laid when the church was built a half century ago. The work is being supervised by the Building Committee of the church so as to coordinate the work of the new floor with the projected educational addition.

Inasmuch as the work will necessarily carry through at least one Sunday, arrangements have been made for all classes that ordinarily meet in the basement to meet at the Masonic hall, located on Main street in the same building formerly occupied by the Antioch Public Library. This will include the nursery, kindergarten and primary departments. Classes will meet as usual at 9:45 and teachers will be present on Main street to give directions for reaching classes. Other classes of the Church school will meet as usual at the church.

During the morning worship service the nursery for small children which ordinarily meets in the basement will be held in Intermediate Department of the Church school located directly off the sanctuary.

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Mrs. Kathryn Shea, Edwards Road and Clifford A. King, which will take place at 10 o'clock Saturday, January 20 at Congregational church, Waukegan.

New Addition to Grade School to Be Placed in Use Week from Monday

The Antioch Grade school will begin occupying the new addition one week from Monday. Principal Richard Whitacre said following a board meeting Tuesday night.

Members of the school board meeting with the contractor Roy Norstrom, Fox Lake, set Feb. 1 as the date for the work to be completed.

The flooring of the class rooms will be finished by next Wednesday, and with the exception of the gymnasium and a few other minor installations the work will be done. Difficulty in getting a steel spline has held up the work on the flooring of the gymnasium.

The pupils on Jan. 29 will be moved from Oakland school to one of the new rooms, and the kindergarten will occupy the other new room. The third grade taught by Mrs. Barthel will then occupy the old kindergarten room.

With the completion of the new $146,000 addition the school board now has the problem of providing even more space. Hardly a week has gone by this year but that new pupils have entered the school and the attendance is soaring.

Because of increased costs the board cut down the new addition two rooms, from the original plans, but it now has the task of adding them.

New desks and other equipment have been received for the class rooms of the new addition.

The Lake Villa Men's club is sponsoring a free dancing party to be given Saturday evening, Jan. 27 at the grade school, Milwaukee and Grand aves.

Frank Laurie and his five-piece band that is winning much recognition at Waukegan and vicinity, will provide the music starting at 8 o'clock.

Women's groups of the community and Boy Scouts will have charge of the refreshment booths where the only charges will be made.

President Ben J. Cribb is heading the entertainment committee which includes Lester Hamlin, Jere Hagen, the Rev. Robert Harrison, John Eder and Walter Horenberger.

Bell Company Asks Big Increase in Telephone Rates for Antioch Area

Sixth Annual Tourney of Antioch Recreation Set For Jan. 27 to Feb. 4

The sixth annual singles bowling tournament of the Antioch Recreation will be held the weekends, Jan. 27 and 28 and Feb. 3 and 4, it has been announced.

Former tournaments of this nature here have been a big success and the new owners of the bowling lanes plan to continue to make them so.

Choice spots on the time table are now available the managers announced.

Several out-of-town bowlers have already made their entries. They are from Barrington, Zion, Waukegan, North Chicago, Morton Grove, and Ingleside.

The substantial prizes have been a big drawing card in the past. Competition is on a handicap basis.

High Schools in County Announce Building Plans

Lake county high schools continue to show evidence of "growing pains."

The North Chicago area broke away from Waukegan Township High school this week and plans to build its own high school.

Ela-Vernon Township district announced a movement to get an addition to its high school at Lake Zurich twice the size of the present building.

Work on the addition to the Grayslake grade school will start soon, board members said.

Holy Name Society Will Sponsor Bowling Sunday

The Holy Name Society of St. Peter's church has obtained the Antioch Recreation alleys for Sunday afternoon and will stage competitive play in which eight teams will vie for prizes and trophies.

The members of St. Peter's parish have been invited to attend and participate by a committee comprising Charles Schroeder, Charles Cermak, and Anthony Scully.

There will be quite a range in the abilities of the various bowlers and they expect to have a lot of fun. Spectators are welcome, the committee said.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Lawton who have spent the past several months in Georgia, are now in Florida.

R. C. Edmundson Named Director of Civilian Defense

Village Board Enacts Law Giving Power to new Defense Council

R. C. Edmundson, principal of the Antioch Township High school was appointed Civilian Defense director for Antioch by James McMillen, village president.

The appointment followed the enactment of a village ordinance in a special meeting of the board Friday evening setting up the machinery for civil defense and disaster relief.

The ordinance provides for a council of defense comprising President McMillen, Director Edmundson, Police Chief Walter Scott, Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen, Health Officer R. D. Williams, M. D., the village engineer and a Rescue squad representative. (The village has no engineer at this time.)

The council will meet soon in developing a civil defense plan.

President McMillen and Director Edmundson attended a Chicago area meeting of mayors and directors at Chicago Monday in hearing a discussion of plans for co-operative efforts in the region in event of attack by an enemy.

The region represented is DuPage, Kane, Will, Lake and Cook counties in Illinois, and Lake county in Indiana. The several hundred men gathered at the Science of Industry building Monday were told that the state will soon enact legislation providing for enforcement of defense regulations.

It will back up ordinances such as the one enacted by Antioch in providing for effective mobilization of all the resources of the village both public and private.

The council and division members not employed by the village will serve without pay. While engaged in this service they shall have the same immunities as village employees performing similar duties.

Penalties for obstructing the work in civilian defense calls for a fine not exceeding $100 and by imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or both. The same penalty holds for any person displaying without authority any mark of authority specified by the council of defense.

The council of defense will supervise divisions of specific action referred to in Chicago as indices. The divisions are the divisions of:

Law enforcement, fire services, medical and health, engineering and utilities, transportation, communications, welfare, information and education, and others as determined locally such as industry.

"The proposed new state law will make action of the council and its directives mandatory," Director Edmundson said he was told.

Report of Local Banks Shows Substantial Gain This Year Over Last

The Antioch and Lake Villa banks showed a continuation of their steady growth during the past year according to their statements this month.

The State Bank of Antioch has total deposits of $3,034,665.25 in contrast to $2,747,518 a year ago. The grand total resources climbed from $2,921,135.35 to $3,212,540.41 during the same period.

The report of the First National bank shows that at the end of 1949 the deposits were $2,256,308.54 and total assets $2,365,040.62, while at the end of 1950 the deposits were $2,402,137.80, and the total assets $2,513,248.75.

The Lake Villa Trust and Savings bank had resources at the end of 1950 totaling $1,450,048.14 and deposits of $1,345,977.23 in contrast to resources of $1,355,561.94 and deposits of $1,262,768.78 at the end of 1949.

The banks of these villages are quite valuable both as a service and as a stimulus to business, and so far as Antioch is concerned account for its reputation as a good trading center.

What a Difference!

Do you want to see the difference between socialized enterprise and free enterprise? Take a look at the coal industry here and in Britain.

In the last five years, more than 200 large coal mines, each with a daily capacity of over 500 tons, have been opened or placed in development in this country. In addition, about 800 smaller mines have been opened, plus many new surface or strip operations. These new facilities alone have a productive capacity of 280,000,000 tons of coal a year—more than half of the expected production total of 1958. It all represents new growth, new risks, new ventures.

Now for Britain. In 1949, the total deep-mine production of British coal was 28,000,000 tons less than in 1939. Absenteeism, under government ownership, reached a peak and was largely responsible for the drop in production. England's mines were far inferior to ours even under private management. Under nationalization, which was supposed to produce Utopia in a hurry, the inferiority has become still more marked.

What it all amounts to is that free enterprise has scored another triumph in the United States. There has been a quiet revolution in our coal mining in recent years, characterized by a great and dramatic expansion of mechanization and research. This could have been accomplished only as it was accomplished—by the cumulative efforts of progressive, private management working for the greater good of all and striving to earn a profit at the same time. Here's one more case where the facts speak for themselves.

Better Than Ever

An article by Greg MacGregor in the New York Times deals with the views of food distributors in the current emergency. Three important points are stressed.

First, no food shortages are in prospect, and food supplies and distribution are in a far more favorable position than they were prior to the last war.

Second, neither controls nor rationing are necessary at the present time.

Third, the public has adopted a "saner" attitude toward food supplies than has ever before existed in time of emergency. Mr. MacGregor writes: "Credit for this can be shared by members of the industry itself who performed an excellent job last summer in a campaign to eliminate hoarding and resultant false shortages."

What is true of food is true of distribution in general. There will be some shortages as the strains of rearmament increases—that is inevitable. But few if any of the prospective shortages will be in the field of necessary goods. And America is lucky that it has a vast retail industry which is geared to distributing the produce of our farms and factories throughout the country, in the most equitable possible way, and at the most moderate price to the consumer that conditions permit.

The reason for the high efficiency of retailing is competition—competition in price, in service, and in all other ways. Big stores and small stores, chain stores and individually-owned stores, super-markets and mail-order houses—all are out for the business. All are doing everything they can to attract the buyer.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Running an eye over how and why we maybe doozed the soup here and there—in 1950—is not a bad idea. How-come we did not cool-down our congressman as he voted more debt and bonds for a 100 things unneeded.

With our "all-out" for defense we are going to need our every nickel. We must keep the U. S. A. in fettle, otherwise we will be a forlorn lot. No extra 10 cent piece should be collected from the people via bonds and taxes and be put into anything that won't shoot—or help feed the army and navy—or keep the men in uniform in good health and fit—or assemble, build and ship war tools.

Looking to 1951, there are gleams of light. Says what, say Henry. Well, I says, for one gleam there is our new Defense Mobilizer—he is Mr. General Electric Wilson. He is no mediocre person. He is to say who will get the copper and steel, etc. to build our defenses. He can tell 'em, and he will do so. There will be no skylarking around. We are in good hands, there. He is a proven success—a citizen of the first water—and at the top via perspiration and determination, from office boy up.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

$15,500,000 IN NEW PAYROLL COSTS TO ASSURE GOOD SERVICE

Good telephone service is the foundation of military and civilian defense communications... a keystone of speeded-up war production. Good telephone employees form the base on which it is built.

And to assure continued good service during the critical days ahead, this company has recently granted additional wage increases to the 39,000 employees serving you at Illinois Bell. These will add $15,500,000 to Illinois Bell's payroll costs over the various wage contract periods.

These raises for employees have sharply increased the telephone company's rising expenses. But they were necessary to bring telephone wages in line with higher wages recently granted by other industries in the territory we serve. Of equal importance, they assure you of high caliber telephone people to handle your communications problem, and the nation's communications during the challenging days that lie before us.

Library Notes

"The Complete Poems" of Illinois' own poet, Carl Sandburg have recently been published and the book is now on the library shelves in memory of Alfred J. Pedersen. In 40 years of writing poetry, Mr. Sandburg has published six volumes: "Chicago Poems"; "Cornhuskers"; "Smoke and Steel"; "Slabs of the Sunburnt West"; "Good Morning, America"; and "The People, Yes". All of these volumes plus a new section of seventy-four poems are included in this one volume.

"Garden Flowers in Color", by David J. Foley, will delight the gardener whose thoughts are turning to plans for springtime planting. The multitude of beautifully colored pictures will prove a great help in arranging flower beds to secure masses of color and there are sections on soils and insect control also. "Garden Flowers in Color" was presented to the Antioch Township Library in memory of Mrs. Florence Lindgren.

"Buying a House Worth the Money" is a book whose very title will intrigue all prospective home owners. Frazier Forman Peters, the author, is an architect with twenty-five years' experience in building, buying, selling and designing houses. His book outlines all the standards and procedures to be considered in purchasing, building, or remodeling a home. "Buying a House Worth the Money" is a memorial book for Ben R. Burke.

Cleaning Woman Who Found $40,000 Gets $150 Reward

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—The woman who found $40,000 in the First Trust and Deposit company while sweeping up, received a reward of $150. Mrs. Mary Sakowski, 48-a-week cleaning woman, discovered the money in a teller's cage while at work. She said she took it home with her for safekeeping. She telephoned the bank the next day and asked that it come for the money. The bank said the reward given her was "moderate" because she had failed to follow instructions and notify her supervisor or the bank's night watchman.

Watermelon Long Enjoyed

The watermelon now seems as typically American as corn and apple pie, but actually its cultivation goes back to prehistoric times. Old pictures discovered by archeologists indicate the ancient Egyptians grew the watermelon. There is other evidence that its dripping sweetness has been enjoyed for centuries in many parts of the world. Explorer David Livingstone found watermelons growing wild over large tracts in Central Africa, where the fruit is supposed to have originated. It was brought to America by some of the earliest European colonists. The import promptly was adopted by the Indians. Marquette mentioned in 1673 that he found them growing watermelon in the interior of the country.

Alcoholics Anonymous Had Big Party at Round Lake

Among those celebrating the New Year, was the Round Lake Group of Alcoholics Anonymous, with guests from other groups in this vicinity.

One hundred and twelve celebrated by dancing, games and singing. Plenty of food was served, and all drinking coffee and soft drinks. Clear headed, they all had a wonderful time; not a foggy head or thick tongue among them.

Attending this party were people in all walks of life with an honest desire to live a happy, sober, home-loving and friendly life.

Alcoholics Anonymous is not a crusaders and have no quarrel with alcohol, other than not being able to handle it. They have no axes to grind, and carry the torch for no one. They have no ambitions, other than to save themselves from what to them was a consuming evil. For the "guy" who can handle his liquor "swell", but if he cannot handle it, A. A. has the tools and can inform him how to use them from their own personal experiences.

Miranda Stamps Issued
On the 200th anniversary of his birth, Venezuela has honored General Francisco de Miranda by the issuance of four new stamps. Each stamp bears a vignette portrait of the Venezuelan born citizen of the world and Precursor of Spanish American independence.

Prevents Scratching
When movable tables and chairs are to be placed on a polished floor, cut pieces the size of a quarter or a half-dollar from an old felt hat and glue them to the bottom of the chair and table legs. This will prevent their scratching the floors.

Wood Carver's Mistake Names Land 'America'

NEW YORK—If you ever wondered how this land of ours got its name America—it was a mistake. The only known copy of a world globular map printed in 1507, the first to show the Western Hemisphere and to designate it "America" was put on sale recently.

The map was issued in April, 1507, just 15 years after Columbus made his discovery. It was made by Martin Waldseemüller, a German cartographer. It was Waldseemüller who made the mistake and named this land America.

Many contribute to the mistake to his absorbing interest in Amerigo Vespucci. Later, so the story goes, Waldseemüller realized Vespucci did not discover the new continent, and in 1516 he dropped the name. It was too late, however, for the public refused to give up the name which he had coined.

Map Cut From Wood

The globular map was cut from a single wood block and measures 9½ by 15 inches. It was designed in twelve connected globular segments, presumably to be cut out, mounted on heavier paper and shaped into globe form.

However, you wouldn't recognize America from Waldseemüller's map. It's shaped something like a boomerang and is about a fifth of the size of Europe.

The map is assumed to have been printed in St. Die in Lorraine, but there is a possibility that it was produced in Strassburg, a famous center for wood cutting and printing.

The map was the remaining item and prize piece of what was until recently the world's largest and most famous private collection of early maps. In the last year the collection was acquired by Hans Kraus, dealer in rare maps and books in New York.

Collectors Item

The collection numbered 14,000 items and was owned in its entirety at one time by Franz Ritter von Hauslab of Vienna, who upon his retirement from military life as an Austrian field marshal-lieutenant and director of artillery, devoted himself to scholarly researches and to the forming of his collection.

After his death von Hauslab's maps, manuscripts and other collected material were purchased by the first Liechtenstein owner Prince Johann II, whose family has owned it ever since.

Fifteen Years in Man's Life Lost by Judge's Order

SEATTLE—Fifteen years in a man's life have been officially lost—by judicial order.

Allen Paul Hull, 60, absconded with $8,500 in bank funds from the Tower Savings Bank in 1935. He had been executive vice-president. Last November he returned, repaid the money, pleaded guilty to grand larceny, and was sentenced to six months in jail without revealing where he had been during the past 15 years.

The convicted man, anxious to keep his 15-year's absence a secret, said: "I have established a business. I expect I have 10 years of productivity left in my lifetime. If I tell where I've been, I'll be ruined."

For that reason Superior Judge Chester A. Batchelor signed an order that the usually public records of the parole officer, to whom Hull must report periodically, will be kept secret.

Celebrities Use Many Ways To Put Themselves to Sleep

HOLLYWOOD—How do celebrities put themselves to sleep? Here's what they say:

Rube Goldberg puts a pillow on his feet.

Hugh Herbert claims watching goldfish makes him yawn and relax.

Olivia de Havilland eats lettuce or celery at bedtime.

Joan Bennett drinks a cup of hot milk with a lump of butter in it.

Katherine Mayo drinks a cup of hot milk with a half teaspoon of pepper in it.

Norman Rockwell imagines he is someone else.

Stuart Chase reconstructs maps in his mind.

Jack Bennis imagines he's painting a gigantic figure "3" on the side of an even more gigantic barn door.

Gracie Allen counts oranges on an imaginary orange tree.

Businessman Bails Out 200 Dogs for Memphis Children

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — A Memphis businessman read about a flock of unclaimed dogs in the city pounds. He came up with an idea that made 200 kids in that city happy.

"I got to thinking," he said, "there must be a lot of little boys in Memphis who would like to have dogs. I'm willing to pay out 200 dogs for any little boys."

The gesture cost Chambers more than $200. It cost $1 to get a pup under 4 months old and $1.50, plus a $1 license fee, for older dogs.

SHORT STORY

Change
Of Pace

By Willard Olvan Persing

"I don't care if you have to buy a sawmill to get that lumber, just see that it gets there today!"

Mike Clanahan slammed the phone back on its cradle, mumbling to himself about young pups who quit trying as soon as they'd heard 'No' mentioned a time or two.

The slender, black-haired girl, sitting on the corner of his desk, grinned at him. "Pops, if everyone bullied their way through like you do, there'd be quite a crop of cracked heads."

As he looked up at his daughter, Mike's face softened into a smile. "Something on your mind, Cathy?"

"Yes, but I think this job is a little too delicate for your methods." She stared out the window for a moment before continuing.

"James refuses to marry me," she said. "Now, he's decided that it's better if we don't even see each other any more."

"Refuses to marry you?" The windows rattled as Mike came up out of his chair. "Why I'll—"

Cathy's frown put Mike back into his chair. "That's what I mean about your methods. I'd like to have enough of him left to carry me over the threshold."

"Why won't he marry you?" "Rich girl, poor boy. He says he won't have it appear that he married me for my money."

Mike stared thoughtfully at her. "You really love him, don't you?"

Cathy nodded her head. "All you need," Mike said as he leaned back and stared at the ceiling, "is just a diamond-studded, fourteen-carat miracle."

"That's a thought to cheer a girl's heart," Cathy gave her father a wary glance. "That is, if you have an extra miracle you won't be needing for a few days."

MIKE CLOSED HIS eyes and studied a moment. "I could arrange for a high-salaried job to fall his way."

"Pops, please don't try anything like that. If he found that we had a hand in it, he would probably leave town. Your tactics are about as subtle as those of an old billy goat."

"All right, so I'm not in the habit of pussy-footing around," growled Mike. "What are you going to do?"

"Same as I have been doing. Argue some more and try to wear him down."

"That settles that," Mike stood up and absently walked over to get his hat and coat. "You want me to drop you off at home? I've got to run over to the hospital."

"The hospital?" "Yes, Zeke, the fellow who owns the newsstand down on the corner, thinks he's going to die, and I thought some company might cheer him up."

Cathy frowned. "He must be the one who has been giving me some competition. James spends two or three nights a week, playing chess and arguing politics with some old fellow named Zeke."

Mike stopped and stared at Cathy. "Come on," he said hurriedly, "if I don't get a move on, visiting hours will be over before I get there."

The windows were still rattling from Mike's conversation when he slammed the phone back into its cradle and glanced up at the young woman who was struggling to keep the exasperated expression on her face.

"Mike Clanahan, I thought you were asked to keep your strong-arm tactics out of my love affair," Mike grinned up at her. "What do you mean?"

"You know very well what I mean," Cathy's stern expression broke into a happy laugh. She came around the desk and kissed him on the forehead.

"But I still don't know—" "Don't play innocent with me. Having Zeke leave everything to James was a stroke of genius. But what I want to know is how you managed to get forty-seven thousand dollars in old bills hidden in Zeke's room."

"Did it work?" Cathy held her left hand up in front of Mike's face. A diamond on the third finger twinkled merrily at him.

"Pops, please don't try anything," Cathy said. "Your tactics are about as subtle as those of an old billy goat."

A prayer for our Soldiers

BY MAJOR GENERAL ROY H. PARKER

Chief of Chaplains, United States Army

Almighty God, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we commend to Thy special care and keeping those serving in our Army. Though they be in the midst of dangers, do Thou send Thy guardian angels for their protection. Walk beside them as they go through the valley of the shadow of death.

Knowing that all good things come from Thee, grant them courage and loyalty, through a firm faith in freedom's cause, in the present conflict. When sacrifices are called for, let them be made in the knowledge that Thou art the rewarder of Thy servants. Enable them to live valiantly and serve nobly, in the full realization that no man liveth unto himself. Grant them clear minds, strong bodies, resolute wills, and pure hearts free from hatred and bitterness, renewing them each and every day with strength, like strong men of old, who against enthroned wrong stood with confidence and courage.

Awaken in them a lively faith that will keep them close to Thee. Enable them to rest their cause upon Thy Word that though the foe be strong, yet knowing the cause as they battle for the right, they can never fail. Fill their hearts with the assurance that with Thee nothing is impossible and that all things work together for good to them that love Thee.

If it be Thy will that injuries be sustained, let them experience the touch of Thy healing hand and do Thou bless the means and the ministries employed for the restoration of their health.

In these difficult times, when the forces of evil are running rampant and many hopes seem about to be crushed, fill their hearts with an abiding sense of Thy reality and the certainty of Thy continual presence. Enable them to look to Thee when loneliness and longing overtake them; fulfill their yearnings by granting them Thine own companionship and fellowship. Enable them to realize the full meaning of Thy promise, "Lo, I am with you always."

Thou who are the Protector and Helper as well as the Giver of victory, grant unto them every good gift of body and soul and unite us in faith and love unceasing. Amen.

Value Your Health
More Than Riches

Some folks think that fine clothes and fine, big houses are the most important things in life, but these things really don't mean too much if a person doesn't feel well enough to enjoy them. Most folks don't realize this, but

Mrs. Lucy Braswell, of Route 2, Stone Mountain, Ga., realizes it very well. Mrs. Braswell takes HADACOL, and by taking HADACOL she found she is helping her system overcome deficiencies of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Braswell's own statement: "I have been sick for some time with stomach disturbances. I began taking HADACOL and I have been taking it about six weeks. I am so much better and much stronger. I will continue to take HADACOL. It sure has helped me. I tell my friends about HADACOL. I can't praise HADACOL too much. I am 59 years old."

Story of Oleomargarine
Napoleon III, who offered a prize in 1870 for the best butter substitute that could be produced in France, was in large part responsible for the first extensive manufacture of the product. Originally made from beef fat, margarine now is derived principally from the fats and oils of plants. The buttery flavor is obtained from milk which is treated with lactic acid bacteria—the same bacteria which gives butter its distinctive taste. Margarine today is custom-built to keep up with nutritional progress and available supplies.

Volunteer Air Reserve Training Now Calls for Greater Skill in Flying

Lt. Raymond W. Baethke, an air force officer with the 38th bomb group in England during World War II, told members of the Volunteer Air Reserve Training squadron at Waukegan recently that increasing speed, larger planes, and smaller crews necessitates greater skill to insure successful bombing missions.

Lt. Col. Marshall C. Strenger, commanding officer, announced that all members of the squadron will be notified of the points they have accumulated which will apply towards promotion longevity, and retirement during the past six months.

There are still a few openings in the local group and any officers or airmen interested in joining the squadron are advised by the officers to contact Sgt. Smelter, Maj. 4788, Waukegan, or calling at the American Legion home in Waukegan.

Civilization in Turkey

The heart of modern Turkey is the Anatolian plateau of Asia Minor. Few regions of the world has had so long a record of continuous civilization. The Hittite tribes who occupied those highlands at the dawn of history traded metals, grain and cattle with the Sumerians of Mesopotamia, whose civilization was contemporary with that of ancient Egypt. In addition to manufactured goods from Sumeria, the Hittites received such cultural intangibles as cuneiform writing which helped them to develop a distinctive culture of their own about 2000 B.C.

Allendale Wins From Round Lake Grade School by 49-17 Score

The high-scoring Allendale basketball team of the Allendale School for Boys found the going rather easy as they chalked up a win over the Round Lake Grade School by the score of 49 to 17. The game proved to be good clean and hard-fought, but the Round Lake lads just couldn't match the fast pace set by the Tigers.

The game started slowly as the Tigers found it hard to penetrate the zone defense that Round Lake employed and at the end of the first quarter Allendale led 11 to 3. That was as close as the Round Lake boys could come as they fell to the fast-breaking, long shot offense used by Allendale. The score at half time was 26 to 7. The Tigers lead 33 to 14 midway through the second half—as the reserves took over to finish the game. Capt. John Kelly was high for the winners scoring 18 points while Staples lead Round Lake with 5.

The Allendale Junior team continued in their winning ways also by downing the Round Lake lightweight 36 to 9. The win was the Junior's fifth straight this year and their 14th straight over two seasons of competition. Bill Cassidy was the high point man of the game gathering a total of 14 points.

North Dakota Lumber

The varieties of trees cut in North Dakota for lumber are mostly cottonwood, elm, oak, basswood, aspen and boxelder.

Water for Cattle

A day or so of short water supply will cut gains and throw cattle off feed. A mature steer needs 10 gallons of water per head daily. Don't make steers walk too far to water.

News of Cub Pack 84

This fine new Pack is rolling along in fine style. With 35 registered cubs, and 10 adult leaders working in 5 dens the future looks good. An attendance of over seventy was reached in the January Pack meeting. Rip-roaring games were led by Bob Harrison, cubmaster, with parents and boys participating, to the hilarious enjoyment of all. An excellent color movie was shown on the theme of a Circus Pack Meeting. Reports were made on Den activities by Mrs. Don Cremin, Mrs. Jean Mack, Mrs. Oscar Herbst, Mrs. Harry Brooks and Mr. Harrison. A mock funeral was presented by the boys of Den 5 and refreshments in abundance were enjoyed by all. A final "night-cap of fun" was a three-legged race teaming fathers and sons. The race was easily won by Paul and Gary Williamson.

Outstanding achievement in cubbing in Lake Villa is the rapid uniforming of the boys. Dens 1 and 3, under Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Herbst have earned money by bake sales to uniform all their boys. Den 5, of the Central Baptist Home is currently conducting a drive for clothing and second hand items to be sold at a rummage sale, Saturday, Jan. 27 in Lake Villa. Anyone having such items to donate should call

Lake Villa 8-4871 and the boys will pick it up.

The Cub-Master had a happier Christmas by the remembrance of Den 3 in Deep Lake who presented him with a five dollar bill as a yuletide gift.

Plans have been tentatively set for a Blue and Gold Banquet, Feb. 7, with Don Sandy, popular scout field executive as guest speaker. A meeting of den mothers in the near future will assign responsibilities for the preparations and serving of the dinner.
